Dear Larry:

A note to you is long overdue! The two enclosures will give evidence that we were there. You might not recognize Wally under my straw hat and Millicent, but I think Harold looks natural. The swarthy young gent handled the outrigger to perfection.

We all stayed at the Hawaiian Village (Kaiser's new joint) and liked it very much. Millicent was there for two weeks. We spent two nights on Kawai, at the Coco Palms. The male contingent spent longer than planned at Eniwetok, so I had just a few days in Honolulu.

Anyway, we are again grateful to you for your kindness and trouble in putting us up at the "Outrigger".

We saw the Warners and they were both fine and as nice as ever.

I hope you will be The Grove this summer.

Very best to you and Lucie,

As ever

Donald Cooksey
