

Safety Engineers - and Bike Safety

Did you know....

That Safety Engineers are responsible for:

Designing safe bicycle and pedestrian routes

Determining the width of bicycle lanes

Designing safe bicycle paths and lanes

Determining height of curbs to be compatible with pedal height

Providing safe inclines at intersections

